Fifty Degrees Outdoor Power

Overview

How do you prepare for camping in 50 degree weather?

Exercise before preparing for bed when camping in 50-degree weather. Run, do pushups or jumping jacks to get your heart pumping and to warm up your body. Set up a well-insulated tent, a sleeping pad and a sleeping bag. Close the tent door before undressing. Take off any wet or damp clothes and wear warm, insulating pajamas.

What should you wear on a 50-degree weather day?

According to stylist Yvette Jordan, there's one rule you should look to to get you through the season. "As a stylist, I believe that layering is important on a 50-degree weather day," she shares. "My process for this is to start with a basic white tee under a crew neck sweater, then add a cropped jacket."
