Are solar photovoltaic modules safe in Germany?

In Germany, solar photovoltaic modules are certified according to European Norm (EN) standards. Manufacturers must comply with the "safety class II" norms that certify the electrical safety of photovoltaic modules.

How can a German company sell photovoltaic products in the European Union?

Innovative PV sales strategies, system configurations and integration processes - including storage and demand management - are intrinsic components of the specialist expertise being developed in Germany. International companies wishing to sell photovoltaic products in the European Union must fulfill established quality and safety requirements.

Which country has the largest solar PV market in Europe?

Germany is the biggest and fastest-growing rooftop solar PV market in Europe. European market leader Germany occupies one quarter of the EU market and leads the list of EU countries with the largest cumulative PV capacity of more than 100 GWp.

Are glass-glass PV modules a good choice?

Glass-glass PV modules (b) do not require an aluminum frame and therefore have a lower carbon footprint than PV modules with backsheet (a). Although photovoltaic modules convert sunlight into electricity without producing emissions, PV-generated solar energy does produce CO<sub>2</sub> emissions during production, transport and at the end of module life.

Can a photovoltaic system be installed in a European location?

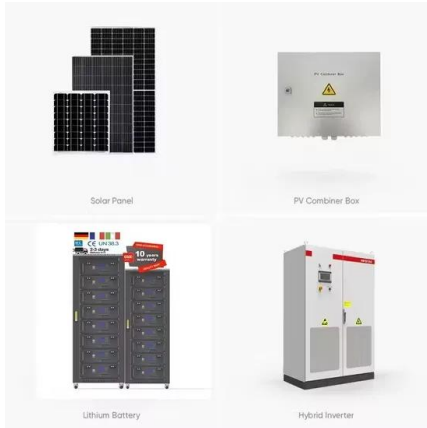

"If I want to install a photovoltaic system in a European location with average irradiation values, I have a great influence on its climate friendliness with the choice of my PV modules," explains Dr. Holger Neuhaus, Head of Department for Module Technology at Fraunhofer ISE.

What is the future of PV in Germany?

Innovative data management systems, EV-charging, heat pumps and new tools for optimizing PV systems efficiency and operations are other promising fields within the German PV market. Germany actively welcomes international enterprises to participate in PV developments to shape the global market of the future.
